

Model Clubs/Displays

Here is MAFVA Cambridge, Spike Judd and Paul Middleton is seen in this photo above. There are different MAFVA Clubs all around the UK.

Above is the outstanding figure works of Norman Ott, UK's No 1 Figure painter, who will also be returning again this year. Giving valuable advice and techniques to improve your figure painting.

Here is Gravesend Military Modelling Society; Clive Career is seen in this photo above. This club have many members of all different ages. Based in Kent (Gravesend)

Here is Sprue Crew, Ian Sadler is seen in the photo above, seen giving hints and tips to a member of the public.

Keith Palmer with the 1/16th Scale War and Peace Collection. All Crafted by his bare hands.

A must see!

Here is Mitches Model's (Resin Figures) who attended last year's show and will be attending again this year

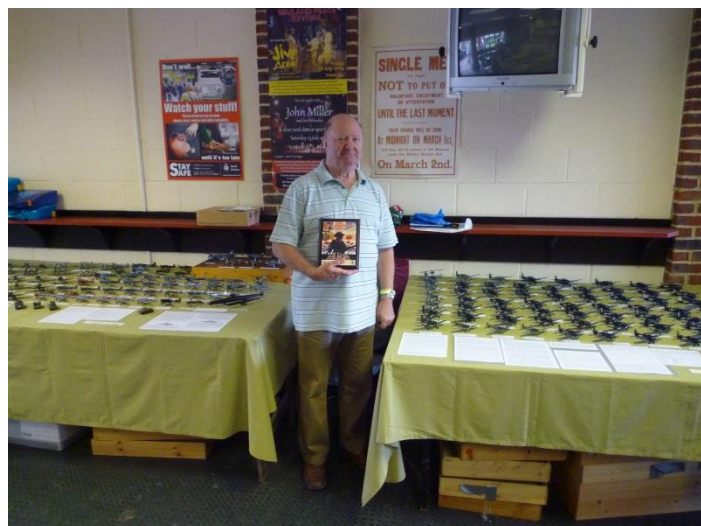

Here is Stan Britnell from Britnell Bases. Producer of model bases which come in many different sizes and made out of all types of wood, he was also here last year and will be attending again this year.

Here is Tracey Layton from Armour fast, Producing high quality 1/72nd models. Manufactured in her own company and will be attending again this year.

Here is Crush the Kaiser one of our larger members who is for those interested in war gaming and what is involved. These will also be returning this year.

Here is Terry Plaw, He has an outstanding collection of 1/72nd aircraft consuming 10 tables, and must be seen. This year's display will be the battle of Britain aircraft.